Additional information from the Preface:

the size of the one published twenty years ago.

We regret to say that the confusion arising from the duplicating of street names and numbers, occasioned by the annexing of the outlying towns two years ago, has not been entirely overcome, some of them not having yet been changed. They are, however, being put through the Council slowly, and we trust by the time the World's Fair visitors reach us that this slight inconvenience will be fully rectified. We still use the marks, "L.", "H. P.", "L. V.", "J.", etc., after addresses in Town of Lake, Hyde Park, Lake View, and Jefferson, where duplication would cause confusion.
