1870. GREAT CENTRAL ROUTE. 1870.

Blue Line

ORGANIZED JANUARY 1, 1867.

OWNED AND OPERATED BY THE

Michigan Central, Illinois Central, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Chicago & Alton, Great Western (of Canada), New York Central, Hudson River, Boston & Albany, and Providence and Worcester Railroads.

THE "BLUE LINE"

Is the only route that offers to shippers of freight the advantages of an unbroken gauge through from Chicago to the Seaboard and to all Interior Points on the line of Eastern Connections beyond Suspension Bridge and Buffalo. All through Freight is then transported between the most distant points of the roads in interest.

WITHOUT CHANGE of CARS!

The immense freight equipment of all the roads in interest is employed, as occasion requires, for the through service of this Line, and has of late been largely increased. This Line is now prepared to extend facilities for the transit and delivery of all kinds of freight in Quicker Time and in Better Order than ever before.

THE BLUE LINE CARS

Are of solid, uniform build, thus largely lessening the chances of delay from the use of a mixed construction, and the consequent difficulty of repairs, while remote from their own roads. The Blue Line is operated by the railroad companies who own it, without the intervention of intermediate parties between the Roads or Line and the public.

Trains run through with regularity IN FOUR OR FIVE DAYS to and from New York and Boston. Especial care given to the Safe and Quick Transport of Property Liable to Breakages or Injury, and to all Perishable Freight.

Claims for overcharges, loss or damage, promptly settled upon their merits. Be particular and direct all shipments to be marked consigned via

1870. — CHICAGO REPUBLICAN. — 1870.

THE PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

THE CHICAGO REPUBLICAN FOR 1870.

A Repository of Politics, Commercial Intelligence, Agricultural Information, Literature, the Fashions, Scientific News,
Sporting News, Home and Foreign News,
Interesting and Valuable to Everybody.

THE WESTERN ORGAN OF THE GREAT REPUBLICAN PARTY, AND THE LEADING NEWSPAPER WEST OF THE ALLEGHANIES.

THE REPUBLICAN aims to lead the people and instruct them in the principles of Political Economy—a conscientious and honest advocate of the highest good of all classes.
It has no interest to serve except the interests of the public, and in pursuing this object with the utmost energy and enterprise, its managers will utilize all the resources at their command to constantly improve it and keep even step with the march of progress and advancement of the age. It will pursue this course faithfully and with unvarying energy —always on the side of the people; an unyielding and spirited opponent of whatever conflicts with their highest and best interests in Town, County, State or National politics.
The reputation of the REPUBLICAN as a reliable Commercial and Agricultural Paper is so firmly fixed that we need say no more than that we shall continue to spare no pains nor expense to furnish the fullest and most accurate reports of our Grain, Lumber, Live Stock, Dry Goods, and General Markets that skill and industry can procure.

PROTECTION TO HOME INDUSTRY.

Believing that a nation's highest prosperity can be best promoted by every policy that will encourage our Domestic Manufactures, the REPUBLICAN will be made a paper full of interest and value to the Farmer, the Merchant, the Politician, the Lawyer, the Mechanic and the Laboring Man.

THE REPUBLICAN is emphatically the people's advocate and friend. As a public newspaper, it claims pre-eminence among the journals of the West. It maintains a full and ample corps of correspondents and reporters at all important points in the country, and by a liberal use of the extensive facilities of the telegraph, is enabled to present its readers the LATEST Commercial, Political, and Miscellaneous News from all sections of the world.

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN

Will be edited with especial care, and made second to no paper in the country in the departments of News, Literature, Commerce, Agriculture, and Miscellaneous Summary.
It is the paper for everybody. Considering the size of the sheet and the amount of matter, it is the cheapest paper west of New York.

After years of persistent effort on the part of its proprietors, the REPUBLICAN is now established beyond a peradventure, on an absolutely sound and permanent financial basis, which no possible contingency can affect.

PUBLIC APPRECIATION.

That the public, not only in the Northwest but throughout the country, appreciate the efforts of the managers to build up a first-class journal in all respects, is evidenced in the extent of the patronage given it. The subscription list never increased as rapidly as it now does. We can, and have, shown our daily mail receipts in support of our claim that no paper published in Chicago is received with so great favor by the general public as the Chicago REPUBLICAN.

We ask our friends throughout the country to aid us now with their efforts to further extend our circulation and influence. We are always glad to hear from the people, and to discuss topics which interest them. Our columns are open and ready to welcome their communications, for we aim to make our journal emphatically the people's newspaper.
We invite the co-operation of all in extending our field of usefulness, and as an inducement continue to offer the following liberal

The Interior.

Is a large handsomely printed Paper of eight, seven column pages.

The foregoing list of Stockholders and Officers include some of the best business men of the Northwest.

The able Editor in Chief has a staff of competent assistants.

THE INTERIOR numbers among its contributors some of the best writers in the country.

It has able correspondents at the principal commercial and political centers of Europe and America.

It is the intention of those who control THE INTERIOR that it shall be a journal of the first-class in all respects.

AS AN

ADVERTISING MEDIUM

THE INTERIOR will be found unsurpassed. It reaches a class generally able to buy. Send for terms of advertising. Premiums paid for procuring subscribers. Send to the Publisher for a List of Premiums.

Read the following Opinions of the Press:

These Chicago people have a wonderful way of starting new enterprises. Eastern venturers generally have to pass through a sort of novitiate as feelings, but the Western people hatch them full-winged. Our Presbyterian neighbors in New York and Pennsylvania are, in the ordinary way, slow, cautious, careful, long-thinking brethren; but the great Presbyterian Church of the West—now that its nuptials of old and new are celebrated—bursts upon the public with a great eight-paged charmingly printed, shrewdly edited journal, which in all externals would match the oldest newspaper in the country.—Fourth and Home.

THE INTERIOR is now fairly launched upon its career of usefulness, and—we like it. It combines with the excellencies of its eastern cotemporaries the vivacity and good taste of its western neighbors. In the arrangement of its details, it has vastly improved upon that of the Presbyterian papers of the east, and the matter is characteristic of the living and struggling manhood of the great west.—Syracuse Journal.

The first number of THE INTERIOR is out, and presents a fine appearance. While denominational interests monopolize much of its space, its editorials are catholic and respond to the growing cordiality between Christians of every name in these latter days.—The Advance. (Congregationist.)

* * * It is a large, handsome, first-class paper in every respect. Its spirit is liberal and catholic, and we give it a hearty welcome to the field of labor for Christ and his kingdom. * * * We congratulate our Presbyterian brethren of the Northwest in being represented by a peer of the best religious journals in the country.—The Standard. (Baptist.)

The first number of THE INTERIOR, the new Presbyterian paper, just started in Chicago, as the organ in the Northwest of the united church, has made its appearance. It is a very handsomely printed sheet. * * * Its prospects for success are brilliant and gratifying, not alone to Presbyterians, but to all who desire the spread and ultimate triumph of Evangelical Christianity.—Christian Freeman. (Free Will Baptist.)

THE INTERIOR is the name of the new Presbyterian paper started at Chicago—large, eight pages, handsomely printed, well filled, ably edited, and giving fine promise of being useful and popular.—N. Y. Observer.

We are much gratified with the second number of the INTERIOR, and overjoyed to find our new born cotemporary not only right on the Bible question, but asserting itself in most manly terms. One of the best articles that has yet appeared on this subject, traces its first page from the pen of Dr. Taylor Lewis. Welcome to our new Presbyterian ally.—Christian Advocate. (Methodist.)

Glad indeed are we to find on our desk the long looked-for INTERIOR, published at Chicago. Evidently it has waited for a good outstart, rather than rush into public notice crude, slipshod, and un-kempt. It is indeed a bright and attractive sheet, and withal so well matured in all its arrangements as well as its subject-matter, that no one would suspect its extreme juvenility. Its birth has been like Minerva's, no shred of swaddling clothes appearing, but a full panoply instead. We feel a degree of joy and pride that the Presbyterian church may count another paper of so much present vigor and so fair a promise for the future.—New York Evangelist.

THE INTERIOR, the paper so long announced, has appeared, and is a large, finely printed, and handsome sheet. * * * The editors accept the "Standards," pure and simple, and promise to advocate Presbyterianism "without hesitation or misgiving." With such words on their banner, we cannot do other than give them a hearty welcome into the field and greet them, as we do, with earnest good wishes for their permanent and abundant success.—The Presbyterian.

THE INTERIOR has made its appearance; and is fine looking, vigorous, outspoken, emphatic.—N. Y. Independent.

THE INTERIOR is the name of the new Presbyterian weekly published in Chicago. In appearance, quality, quantity and variety, it bids fair to be the leading Presbyterian journal in America. Under a musical figure the editor gives the following admirable definition of an editor's work:

"He should aim, not to render a long and ingeniously constructed solo, but rather to produce a grand symphony achieved by the best culture and the best voices he may be able to secure."

May THE INTERIOR be true to the twofold significance of its name, and give us the interior—the soul—of Presbyterian Christianity.—The Christian Union.

From the St. Louis Daily Times.

Mr. Edwards is emphatically a pioneer in this branch of business, and is a faithful representative of St. Louis enterprise. He commenced the publication of Directories for this city many years ago, after all had failed in previous attempts, and has continued the issue under all circumstances every year since. Not long after his advent here, he commenced the publication of Directories for Louisville, Indianapolis and Milwaukee. Next he tackled Chicago, where he had to encounter a strong opposition for three years, finally coming out victorious. He also publishes Directories for Memphis, Mobile and New Orleans. As a Directory publisher, "no pent-up Utica contracts his powers," but wherever he sees a point, in common parlance, he "makes for it," and where others would be months in issuing a like work, he accomplishes the task in the same number of weeks, complete and reliable. Our Merchants' Exchange have taken the right view of the value of a City Directory to our people, as well as to strangers, and have passed the following complimentary resolution in regard to it:

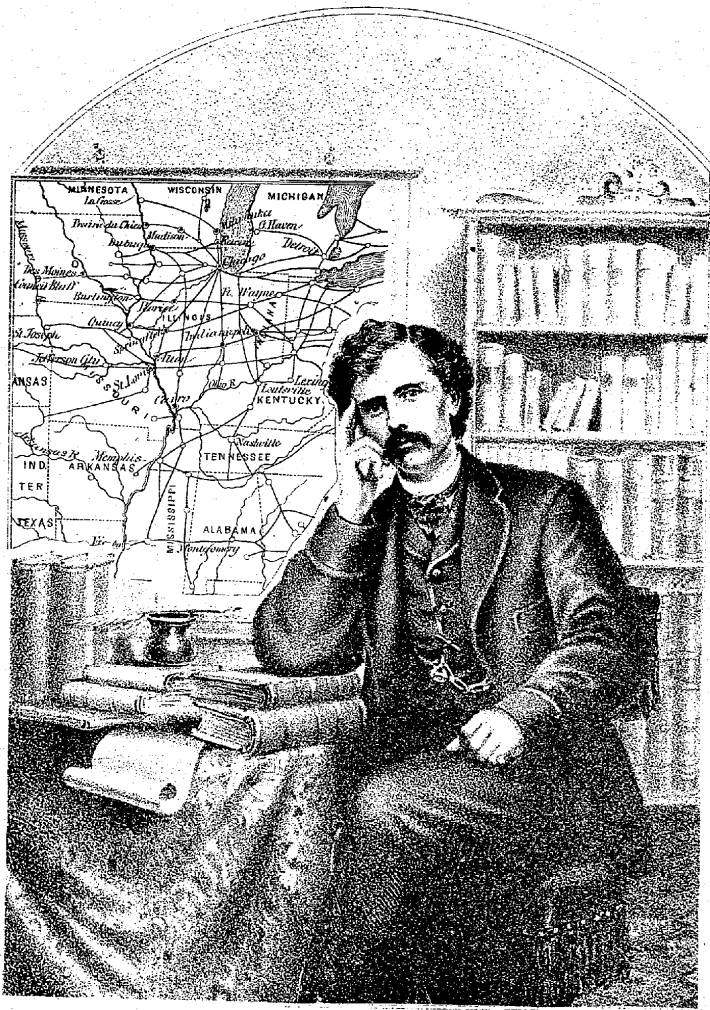

Merchants' Exchange Resolution.

WHEREAS, THE MERCHANTS, MANUFACTURERS AND BUSINESS MEN of St. Louis regard the publication of an annual Directory of our city a great convenience and a business necessity, and that our fellow citizen, Mr. Richard Edwards, has for many years issued such a work as has shown from time to time our growth and the greatness of St. Louis; be it

RESOLVED, That the Union Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis appreciate the enterprise and public spirit of Mr. Edwards, in permanently establishing a standard annual Directory of the city, and that we recommend our fellow citizens to give him such annual encouragement, by subscription and otherwise, as will enable him to issue such a Directory as will be justly entitled the Model Directory of the West, and that the Secretary be instructed to forward a copy of the Directory, with the compliments of the President and Directors of the Exchange, to the various Exchange Rooms and Board of Trade Rooms of large cities of the country.

GEO. H. MORGAN, Secretary.

Hundreds of such notices and resolutions have been given to EDWARD'S DIRECTORIES in the various Cities of the South and West.

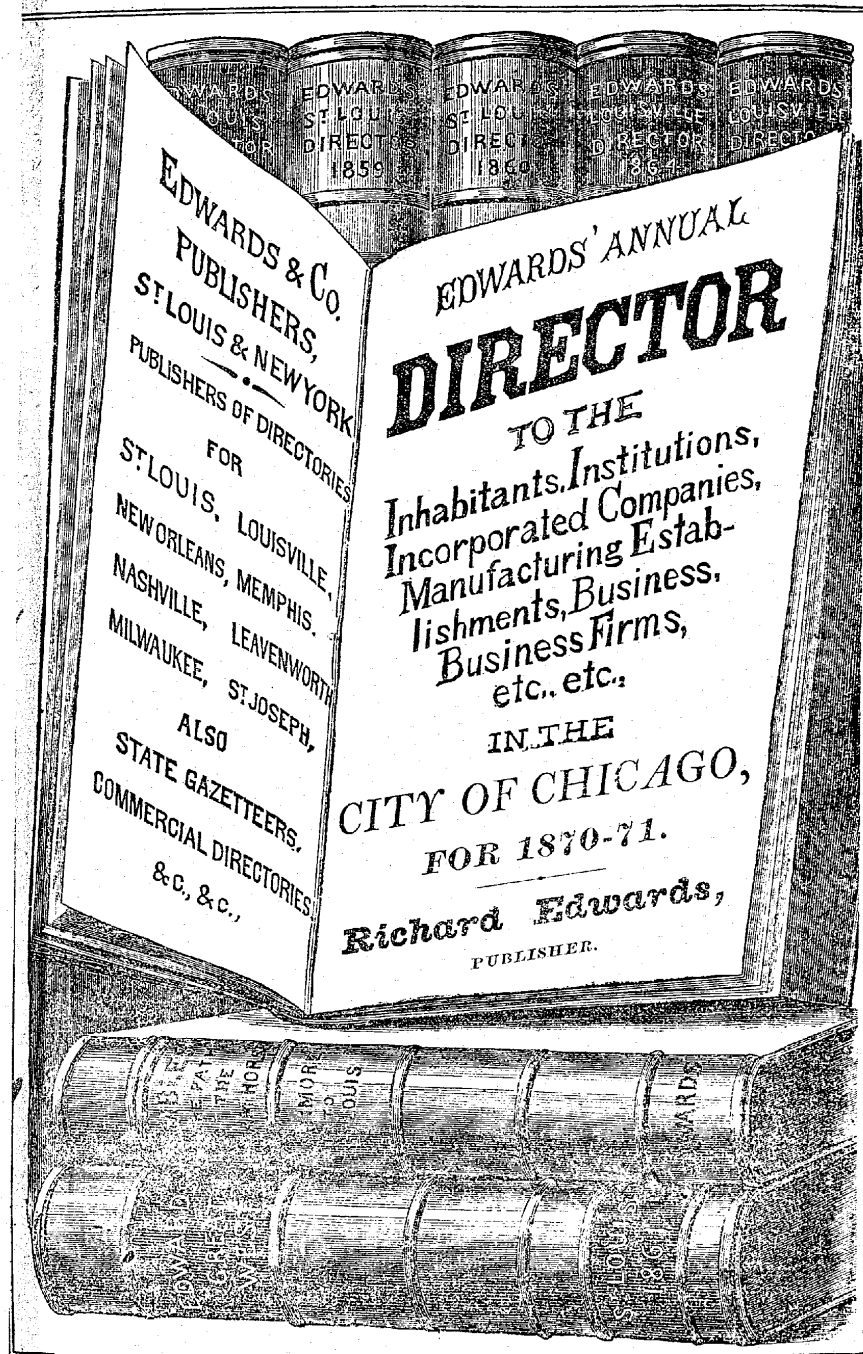

TO MY FRIENDS AND THE PUBLIC:

Having been frequently solicited by friends and patrons, during the last twelve years, to issue in my publications a good likeness of myself, and presuming it will gratify the curious, with an eye to business, I present the above as a faithful representation engraved from a photograph. As a business policy, and believing in advertising, I am in hopes the presentation of the likeness will not be without its good effect. Having studied and labored for over fifteen years in making the publication of city directories a business, I am proud to say that I have accomplished what thousands have attempted and failed. As there are always unprincipled persons ready to use the reputation of others, I hope the above likeness will aid in protecting my friends and the public against bogus adventurers, and also against the numerous irresponsible persons, who are constantly soliciting patronage to Bogus Directories and other advertising mediums, some of them having represented themselves as MR. EDWARDS, others as his agent, thereby enabling them to collect money, and impose upon the public. I would caution all persons against subscribing or paying any money to any person who does not show his responsibility and authority for whom he is acting.

Dedication.

To COL. JAMES T. TUCKER, OF NEW ORLEANS,

Late of the City of Chicago.

The Publisher of the Chicago City Directory respectfully dedicates to you the volume for 1870, and begs leave to refer to your enterprise as a private citizen, for the liberty thus taken; as also to your record as Provo-Marshal General of Louisiana, during the late war, and in the occupancy of several high and responsible positions in the city of your adoption. Young in years, though old in experience, popular with all who have the pleasure of your acquaintance, and with none more so than

Your Sincere Friend,

Editorial Notice.

Practical, energetic and reliable business men are the gentlemen composing the above firm, and it is but just to say, that no house in Chicago, or the West stands higher in the estimation of the business community. This reputation has been brought about through close attention to business, skill in the line of trade they represent, and integrity and promptness in all dealings with their customers. The firm imports direct, and consequently offer inducements to wholesale buyers of Watches seldom equalled. Their assortment of goods is both full and complete, and cannot be excelled in any particular. Wholesale dealers cannot do better than by making their purchases of Watches, Jewelry and Silver Ware of the Messrs. Mayo.

INTRODUCTORY.

As unfailing as the daily newspaper, and with the same regularity, EDWARDS' ANNUAL DIRECTORY for the City of Chicago, makes its appearance, replete with such information in regard to this great mart of ours, as to render it this year, as in the past, an indispensable requisite to the counting room, to the library of the professional man, and in fact to every citizen. It has been the aim of the publisher of the Chicago Directory, in each yearly issue, to present such a work to the people as should command their approbation and support. To this end, he has constantly kept in employment competent men for all the various departments of the business, and having also an extensive Printing Establishment, there has been nothing left undone in making the Directory the Official Guide of the city. All engaged in the work have had practical experience in their profession and have devoted themselves assiduously in bringing out the Directory as nearly perfect as possible—a task very laborious and perplexing, considering the intricacies of the undertaking, and the peculiar nature of the publication.

Whilst every care has been taken this year in compiling the General Directory of the inhabitants of the city, and properly classifying business and professional men under their proper headings in the Business Department (both being bound within one cover), extraordinary attention has also been directed in getting up and properly arranging a mass of information for the City and County Record, which will be found highly useful, and in fact a City Directory would be incomplete without it. Added to this, is the Street and Avenue Guide, and all combined, forming a volume of some twelve hundred pages, for a sum of money merely nominal, when considering the vast amount of matter embraced therein.

The proprietor of this work having been at great expense, and having had many years experience in placing the Directory on a substantial footing, and each annual volume being entirely original, would respectfully remind all persons that the copy-right has been regularly secured, and any person selling copies of a work being an infringement of an existing copy-right, is liable to prosecution and fine for each copy sold; and persons purchasing copies thus copy-righted, are amenable to the same penalties, and I would respectfully caution the public against the numerous irresponsible persons, who are constantly soliciting patronage to Bogus Directories and other advertising mediums, some of them having represented themselves as Mr. EDWARDS, others as his agent, thereby enabling them to collect money, and impose upon the public. I would caution all persons against subscribing or paying any money to any person who does not show his responsibility and authority for whom he is acting.

RICHARD EDWARDS,

Publisher of the Official City Directories of Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville, Memphis, New Orleans, and the principal cities of the South and West. Publishing House, 164 Clark Street, Chicago; 302 North Main Street, St. Louis, and corner of Camp and Commercial Place, New Orleans.
